Message From the House

Hall of the House of Representatives,
Austin, Texas,
July 2, 1972.

Hon. Ben Barnes, President of the Senate.

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

H. C. R. No. 31, Granting permission to as many employees as possible of the Texas Legislature and legislative service agencies to take off on Monday, July 3, 1972.

S. B. No. 1, Appropriating money for the support of the Judicial, Executive, and Legislative Branches of the State Government, for the construction of State buildings, and for

State aid to public junior colleges, for the period beginning September 1, 1972, and ending August 31, 1973; authorizing and prescribing conditions, limitations, rules, and procedures for allocating and expending the appropriated funds; and declaring an emergency. (With Amendments.)

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

House Concurrent Resolution 31 on Second Reading

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 31, Designating Monday, July 3, 1972, as holiday for legislative employees and employees of legislative service agencies.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Sherman and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted.

Senate Bill 1 With House Amendments

Senator Creighton called S. B. No. 1 from the President's table for consideration of the House amendments to the bill.

The Presiding Officer laid the bill and House amendments before the Senate.

Senator Creighton moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments, but that a Conference Committee be appointed to adjust the differences between the two Houses on the bill.

The motion prevailed.

Accordingly, the Presiding Officer announced the appointment by the President of the following conferees on the part of the Senate on the bill: Senators Aikin, Creighton, Schwartz, Word and Christie.

Amendments to Senate Bill 1 Ordered
